*The certificate program is available to students who have completed degree requirements (either two-year, four-year or graduate) from an accredited college or university and are seeking a professional peace officer's license. The six licensing courses can be completed in one academic year and will allow students to enter skills and then take the state-licensing exam.

*Students must have an approved forty-hour emergency first aid certificate before attending skills courses.

*These courses required for Minnesota P.O.S.T. licensing must be completed within three (3) years.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENT 19

Individual semester plans are determined between instructor and student to best meet the student's needs.
